"NEXT WEEK

Saturday September 26 will see the start of an event that will take place in Alfàs del Pi that will feature the attendance of Margrete Auken the Danish Euro MP whose report on housing on Spanish urbanizations painted the country in a very ugly light. The Auken report was passed by the European Parliament, but received severe criticism from Spanish MEPs from both the Partido Popular and Socialist Parties. Her talk will take place at 6 pm o in the Sun Palace Hotel in Alfàs del Pi, and amongst those expected to attend are Jorge Olcina of Alicante University and Carmen del Amo, the President of the European Association of those Affected by Coastal Laws"
